Event Type: Adults

Date: 5/30/2012

Start Time: 7:00 PM

End Time: 9:00 PM

Description: What is a photograph? It is a story. What is a story? It is a series of sentences connected to each other. The same is true about photography. To create a photograph, it is not enough just to take an image of something. The first impression from a photograph is determined by the composition balance of an image. Gary Smith discusses the principles of photographic composition to novices and experienced shutterbugs.
